
From Chicago?

Posted by G - 2008/04/21 08:01

Hi, my partner and I would like to come from Chicago. The only way we can afford to is by hitching a ride. My partner works a 9-5 Mon-Fri, so we're looking for a ride that wouldnt make them miss too much work. I was born in ATL, and am especially excited to go to my first Mondo Homo. Anyone coming through our way?

Thanks. This post saved me some time trawling round the internet looking for bits and bobs.
